CANAL OVERSEAS RENEWS ITS SUPPORT FOR THE CHARITY LES TOILES ENCHANTEES

CANAL OVERSEAS via CANAL OVERSEAS AFRICA, has committed to supporting the work of the charity Les Toiles Enchantées in Africa for the second year running by making a donation.

This year, from 26 February to 5 March, the charity will come to two "SOS villages d'enfants" villages in Mali: Sonankoroba and Sokoura, and project several films including Pirates of the Caribbean, the Lion King, Tarzan and Sister Act, as well as host shows by Pierre-Francois MARTIN-LAVAL, and other activities which will ensure that those days are memorable to the children.

CANAL OVERSEAS is proud to support and join the work carried out by the Toiles Enchantées.

The charity les Toiles Enchantées was created in 1997 and is led by Alain Chabat. It projects films in children's hospitals as well as physiotherapy and re-adaptation centres for ill and disabled children and teenagers. The success of this charity and the passion it has inspired in children have encouraged Les Toiles Enchantées to extend its work to Africa since 2007.
