NOMINATIONS

CANAL OVERSEAS announces the nomination of Manuel Rougeron for the position of Executive Director of VSTV, Vietnam Satellite Television. Based in Hanoi, VSTV is the company recently created in the framework of the recently announced agreements between the CANAL+ Group and VTV, the Vietnamese public television broadcaster, the operational management of which is the responsibility of CANAL OVERSEAS. Manuel Rougeron will report to Arnaud de Villeneuve, Deputy Managing Director of VSTV.

Sandra Ouais, formerly Head of Fiction Acquisitions for the CANAL+ Group, succeeds Manuel Rougeron in the position of Programme and Channel Relations Manager. She will be responsible for relations with the channels which form the various channel packages operated by CANAL OVERSEAS and will oversee the programming and production of CANAL+ channels edited by CANAL OVERSEAS. She will report to Jacques-Aymar de Roquefeuil, Associate Managing Director, responsible for the marketing and operations of CANAL OVERSEAS. This nomination takes effect on July 1st 2009.

Manuel Rougeron began his career in 1995 at Unifrance Film International as a personal assistant in the short film department and left for the Comoros in 1996 as part of the French Cooperation and Cultural Action Mission. On his return to France in 1998, he successively became a project coordinator for the French Organisation Committee for the Football World Cup and with Desfossé International. He joined the programming management team at TPS in 1999, first as a commercial assistant and later as Marketing Manager for the channels edited by TPS and distributed through cable networks. Whilst still occupying this position, he was appointed Managing Director of MULTIVISION/TPSVOD in 2003. In January 2007, he joined CANAL OVERSEAS, occupying the position of Programme and Channel Relations Manager.

Sandra Ouais began her professional career in 1997 at 13ème Rue as a programmer. She went to occupy various positions and was appointed Head of Acquisitions and Programming at 13ème Rue in 2000. In 2002, Sandra Ouais joined the CANAL+ Group as Head of Fiction Acquisitions.
