THE ORANGE AFRICA CUP OF NATIONS, ANGOLA 2010, ON CANAL+ IN SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA

For the 27th edition of the Africa Cup of Nations in Angola, CANAL OVERSEAS AFRICA has announced that the CANAL+ channel in Sub-Saharan Africa will implement an exceptional broadcasting plan for this important event in Africa.

From 10 to 31 January 2010, CANAL+ subscribers in Sub-Saharan Africa will enjoy a broadcasting special on the Africa Cup of Nations, with:

- Full broadcast of the 32 matches of the competition on CANAL+ and CANAL+ SPORT
- All matches will be repeated in the second half of the evening on CANAL+ SPORT
- The best matches, such as the opening match, the quarter finals, the semi-finals and the finals will be broadcast for the first time in High Definition.
- Matches will be commented by specialists from the CANAL+ Sports department and analysed by consultants such as Marcel Desailly, Philippe Doucet, Bernard Lama, Luc Sonor and Guy Roux
- JOUR DE CAN (ANC DAY), a 32 minute programme presented by Thomas Guichard. Every evening, he will be joined by the same prestigious consultants that comment the ANC matches and African personalities.
- JOUR DE CAN will offer a complete review of the day's news: match summary, the best play and goals, exclusive reports of the Africa Cup of Nations and what happens behind the scenes...

Jean-Noël Tronc, Chief Executive Officer CANAL OVERSEAS AFRICA, has stated: "Thanks to this programming, we are delighted to allow all our CANAL+ subscribers in Sub-Saharan Africa to closely follow the African Cup of Nations. Moreover, for the first time our subscribers will be able to enjoy the best matches in high definition and to enjoy these great football moments as if you were there."
