TWO NEW CHANNELS ON CANALSAT REUNION AND CANALSAT MAURICE

CANAL OVERSEAS has announced the inclusion of two new channels on CANALSAT REUNION and CANALSAT MAURICE: Histoire and Syfy Universal.

From 2 March 2010, CANALSAT REUNION and CANALSAT MAURICE subscribers will be able to enjoy:

- Histoire: The channel Histoire offers a wide range of programmes with documentaries, commemorations, discussion and debate programmes such as "Historiquement show" (History show) presented by Michel Field and "Vive le patrimoine" (Long live heritage) with Valérie Expert as well as historical dramas such as "Histoire fait son cinéma" (History in film) presented by Jean Tulard. The channel aims to decipher and understand "the past of our present"
- Syfy Universal: CANALSAT REUNION AND CANALSAT MAURICE subscribers will not be kept in the dark about science fiction, fantasy, paranormal, horror, and heroic fantasy. With Syfy Universal, they will be able to discover the previously unseen and exclusive season 3 of "Heroes" and watch the complete cult series "Battlestar galactica" as well as exclusive and popular series such as "Ghost adventures", "Merlin" and "Futurama".

Channels Histoire and Syfy Universal are on channels 28 and 79 respectively and can be accessed through the CANALSAT LIBREMENT package for CANALSAT REUNION subscribers and the THEMATIQUES+ package for CANALSAT MAURICE subscribers.

With the channels Histoire and Syfy Universal, CANAL OVERSEAS is delighted to add to the channels available on CANALSAT REUNION and CANALSAT MAURICE and reinforce the themes "Discovery" and "Entertainment".
