TWO NEW CHANNELS ON CANALSAT CARIBBEAN

CANALSAT OVERSEAS has announced the addition of two new channels on CANALSAT CARIBBEAN: ARTE and TMC

From 20th April 2010, CANALSAT CARIBBEAN subscribers will be able to discover:

- ARTE, a cultural channel at the heart of Europe and the cutting edge of news. ARTE speaks to all viewers who are curious and open to the world, and offers quality programmes with:
 - news programmes such as "ARTE journal", "GLOBALmag" presented by Emilie Aubry and "l'Invité" with Isabelle Giordano
 - cultural and musical discussion every week with "Metropolis", "Pop Culture" and "One shot not" with Manu KatchéARTE also broadcasts films, THEMA evenings, science, series, fiction, shows and documentaries.

- TMC, the first digital terrestrial TV channel in Mainland France which offers viewers programmes that will make them dream, entertain and inform them, whilst remaining grounded. TMC, a mainstream channel, broadcasts programmes for the whole family:
 - general public entertainment programmes such as "Moundir l'aventurier de l'amour" presented by Laurence Boccolini, "Des Nouveaux secrets de la magie", with Denis Brogniart, "Incroyable mais vrai, le mag", and "Quand la musique est bonne"...
 - emblematic magazine programmes such as "90'Enquêtes" presented by Carole Rousseau, "90'Faits Divers", "Ma drôle de vie" with Alexia Laroche-Joubert and "Code barres"
 - Great films, popular series and children's programmes are also broadcast on TMC.

CANALSAT CARIBBEAN subscribers will be able to access the channels ARTE and TMC free of charge on channels 11 and 38.

With the addition of ARTE and TMC, CANAL OVERSEAS is delighted to offer subscribers in the Caribbean two essential channels and thus enrich the range of channels available through CANALSAT CARIBBEAN.
